

GEORGE K. ROBERTS
Special Agent in Charge
Puget Sound Field Office
Naval Criminal Investigative Service

George K. Roberts was born on September 12, 1948, in Fort Knox, Kentucky, and served in the United States Marine Corps from 1967-1971. He is an honors graduate of Ramapo College of New Jersey (1974) with a degree in Political Science and holds a Master of Science Degree in Criminal Justice from Michigan State University (1975). He also holds a Master of Arts degree in National Security and Strategic Studies from the U.S. Naval War College, Newport, Rhode Island (1989).

Special Agent Roberts was appointed Special Agent in Charge, Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS), Puget Sound Field Office on June 24, 1994. Prior to his appointment, he served as Assistant Regional Director for Foreign Counterintelligence, NCIS European Region, London United Kingdom.

In his current position, Special Agent Roberts is responsible for the NCIS criminal investigative and counterintelligence mission in Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Alaska, and the five western provinces of Canada.

Special Agent Roberts began his law enforcement career with the Naval Investigative Service (NIS), the predecessor of NCIS, in 1976 at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina. Subsequent career assignments included duty at offices in Guam, New Orleans, Seattle, Newport, and London. He held management positions including Assistant Special Agent in Charge, NIS Resident Agency (NISRA) New Orleans, Special Agent in Charge, NISRA Seattle, and Assistant Regional Director, NIS Northeast Region and NCIS European Region.

Special Agent Roberts has received numerous awards for his superior performance and management accomplishments, including Department of the Navy Certificates of Award for Sustained Superior Performance. In 1991, he received the National Intelligence Meritorious Unit Citation for his leadership in the development and execution of a highly successful counterespionage operation against the Iraqi Intelligence Service during Operation Desert Shield / Desert Storm.

Special Agent Roberts is married to the former Linda Rowden of Chicago, Illinois. They have two children, Susan and Rebecca, and reside in Silverdale, Washington.