

R. Jewel Seawood
Assistant Director
Directorate of Intelligence
Naval Criminal Investigative Service

Ms. Seawood joined the Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS) in 1984, serving as a special agent at MCB Camp Pendleton, CA. Since that initial assignment, she has served in numerous positions in various field office and NCIS Headquarters assignments in California, Florida, Hawaii, Texas, Washington, and Washington, DC.

Ms. Seawood entered the supervisory ranks in 1998, serving as the Assistant Special Agent in Charge (ASAC) of the Counterintelligence Program at the NCIS Field Office in Silverdale, WA. Additionally, she served as the ASAC of Criminal Investigations and Operations at the NCIS Field Office in San Diego, CA.

In March 2004, Ms. Seawood was appointed the Special Agent in Charge of the Marine Corps West Field Office, MCB Camp Pendleton, CA. In this position, she served as the NCIS Operational Field Representative to all Marine Corps installations within the Marine Corps Installations West Area of Responsibility (AOR).

In August 2006, Ms. Seawood was appointed the Assistant Director for the Directorate of Intelligence. In this capacity, she oversees the agency's worldwide criminal, counterintelligence and counterterrorism analysis mission.

Ms. Seawood attended Angelo State University, San Angelo, TX, where she earned a Bachelor's Degree in history.
