

J. BRIAN McKEE

Mr. McKee, a native of Malone, New York and a 1961 graduate of Cornell University, entered on duty with the U.S. Naval Investigative Service (NIS) in 1962 as a special agent at the New York City Resident Agency.

Following additional posting as the Resident Agent at Albany, New York, Mr. McKee served a five year tour at the NIS Resident Agency in Naples, Italy. During this tour of duty, Mr. McKee was trained and certified as a Department of Defense Polygraph Examiner. From 1971 to 1974, Mr. McKee served as the Special Agent in Charge of the NIS Resident Agency, Washington, D.C.

Following a similar tour as the Special Agent in Charge at Camp Pendleton, California, Mr. McKee was reassigned in 1975 as the Special Agent in Charge at New York City. He was transferred in 1979 to NIS Headquarters where he served tours as the Senior Staff Assistant to the Director, as the Assistant Director for Administration and finally as the first Assistant Director for Law Enforcement and Physical Security Programs. It was in this position that Mr. McKee, responding to a directive of the Chief of Naval Operations, consolidated the various Navy Program Manager functions for these diverse mission areas into one command structure.

He was reassigned in 1984 as the Regional Director for Operations, NIS Northeast Region, and in December 1986 was selected for Senior Executive Service rank and duty as the second civilian Director of the Naval Investigative Service. Mr. McKee will reside in Malone, New York.
