

CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS

The Secretary of the Navy takes pleasure in presenting the MERITORIOUS UNIT COMMENDATION to the

U. S. NAVAL INVESTIGATIVE SERVICE, PACIFIC

for service as set forth in the following

CITATION:

For meritorious service in providing investigative and counter-intelligence support to Naval units afloat and ashore throughout the Pacific from 10 April 1966 to 1 April 1969. During a period of substantial increase in operations and direct support to Commander in Chief, U. S. Pacific Fleet, personnel assigned to the U. S. Naval Investigative Service, Pacific consistently distinguished themselves by responding to these challenges with timely, efficient and unstinting service. Through effective management, proper assignment of priorities and thoroughgoing dedication, a greatly enhanced quality of counterintelligence and investigative support was rendered the Navy's combat and shore forces. The skill, teamwork and cheerful willingness of all members of the U. S. Naval Investigative Service, Pacific to expend countless extra hours in the accomplishment of vital tasks contributed significantly to the successful accomplishment of their unit's objectives. Their dedication and sense of responsibility were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service.

All personnel attached to and serving with the U. S. Naval Investigative Service, Pacific during the above-designated period, or any part thereof, are hereby authorized to wear the Meritorious Unit Commendation Ribbon.

For the Secretary,

T. H. Moorer
Admiral, United States Navy
Chief of Naval Operations
