

BRIAN S. STAMPER
Special Agent in Charge
Mayport Field Office
Naval Criminal Investigative Service

Brian S. Stamper was born on October 3, 1947, in Chula Vista, California. He served in the U.S. Army from 1968-1970, which included a tour of duty in Vietnam. Following his release from active duty, he attended LaVerne University in LaVerne, California, where he earned a bachelor's degree in criminology in June, 1974, and masters degree in public administration in June, 1976. He also served with the City of Coronado, California, Police Department from 1971 to 1977, rising from the rank of patrolman to detective.

Special Agent Stamper joined the Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS) in January, 1977, serving his initial tour at Camp Pendleton, California. Subsequent tours included: Special Agent Afloat on the USS Constellation; North Island, California; Subic Bay, Republic of the Philippines; Criminal Investigations Department, NCIS Headquarters; Training Department, NCIS Headquarters; Assistant Special Agent in Charge (SAC) at Long Beach, California; Special Agent in Charge (SAC) at El Toro, California; Naval War College, Newport, Rhode Island; and Deputy Regional Director, Newport, Rhode Island.

Special Agent Stamper was appointed as SAC of the Mayport Field Office in Mayport, Florida, in May, 1993. In this position, he is responsible for 58 special agents, and 12 administrative and support staff assigned to 10 offices located in Florida, Puerto Rico, and Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

Special Agent Stamper is the recipient of numerous military and civilian awards, including the Army Commendation Medal, the Department of the Navy Meritorious Civilian Service Medal, and several sustained superior performance awards. He also has a master's degree in International and Strategic Studies from the Naval War College, and was the honor graduate in his NCIS Basic Agent Class.

Special Agent Stamper is married to the former Carol Beaudine of Coronado, California. The Stampers have three children, Jennifer, Heather and Meghan. The Stampers reside in Jacksonville, Florida.