

REAR ADMIRAL EDWARD 'TED' GORDON, JAGC, USN September 1988 - Jun 1989

RADM Edward Gordon graduated as an Ensign from the Naval Academy in 1964 with a BS in Naval Science. He then attended the Navy Supply Corps School in Athens, GA, and upon completion served on USS JOSEPHUS DANIELS (DLG 27) as the Surface Warfare Supply Corps Officer. His assignments at the conclusion of that tour took him to Philadelphia, PA to the Naval Air Engineering Center and the Philadelphia Naval Shipyard. RADM Gordon then served as the Procurement Supply Corps Afloat on USS JOSEPH STRAUSS (DDG 16), followed by assignment to Headquarters, Fourth Naval District. Prior to serving as Commander, Naval Investigative Service Command, Rear Adm. Gordon served as the Military Justice Supervisor, Naval Legal Service Office, Philadelphia, PA; Military Judge Special Court-Martial; Assistant Officer in Charge, Naval Legal Service Officer, Philadelphia; Admiralty Attorney, Office of the Judge Advocate General; Special Assistant for Military Law, Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy; Principal Deputy Chief of Legislative Affairs for Senate Liaison; Assistant Judge Advocate General (Operations and Management)/Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense (Legislative Affairs).