

RADM DUVALL M. "MAC" WILLIAMS JR., USN October 1990 - October 1992

RADM Duvall M. "Mac" Williams graduated from Wake Forest University in 1965 with a B.S. Degree and in 1968 with a Juris Doctor Degree. He then attended Officer Indoctrination School and the Naval Justice School in Newport, RI. RADM Williams was then assigned as a Staff Attorney for the Commander, Naval Base, Subic Bay, Republic of the Philippines. He subsequently was assigned as the Legal Officer, Naval Security Group Activity, Bremerhaven, Germany; Assistant Staff Legal Officer, Commander, Naval Activities, United Kingdom, London. During this time, RADM Williams attended the University of London, where he received his LL.M. Upon his return to the United States, RADM Williams served as the Legislative Attorney in the Office of the Chief of Legislative Affairs at the Pentagon; Accession Assignment/Placement Officer to the Naval Military Personnel Command/Office of the Judge Advocate General; Force Judge Advocate for the Commander, Submarine Force, U.S. Pacific Fleet, Pearl Harbor, HI; Assistant Staff Judge Advocate for the Commander-in-Chief, Pacific. RADM Williams then returned to Washington, DC to serve as the Special Assistant (Legal and Legislative Affairs) to the Secretary of the Navy. He then assumed command of Naval Legal Service Office, Norfolk, VA followed by assignment as the Commander, Naval Investigative Service Command.