Subject: Telephone Directories for Reference Purposes.

1. It is recommended that all District Intelligence Offices secure and maintain telephone directories for the principal cities in their Districts, in order that they might be available for reference purposes.
2. It is also requested that all District Intelligence Offices furnish the Office of Naval Intelligence, for reference purposes, copies of telephone directories for the principal cities in the respective Districts.
3. In instances where cities have separate classified directories, it is requested that copies of these be obtained for the use of this office also.
4. Appropriate arrangements are to be made in the several Districts to secure and forward new directories as they are published in order that this office may have the benefit of current data at all times.
