NAVY DEPARTMENT
OFFICE OF THE CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS
WASHINGTON

UNCLASSIFIED

June 23, 1943

From: The Director of Naval Intelligence.
To: The District Intelligence Officers, All Naval Districts (less the Tenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth and Sixteenth Naval Districts).
Subject: Investigation of civilian employees in Offices of Inspectors of Naval Material who are nominated for attendance at the Naval Aircraft Factory School, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.
Enclosure: (A) Copy of memorandum from Office of Production and Material to ONI regarding subject investigations, dated June 15, 1943, with attachments thereto.

1. Enclosure (A) is forwarded for the information of the addressees hereof and to serve as a guide in conducting the investigations which will probably be requested on subject personnel.

2. It has been determined that Enclosure (A) refers to civilian employees of the Naval establishment who are employed in the Inspection Offices throughout the United States. So far as is known, the investigations referred to in Enclosure (A) will probably originate in the various districts rather than through the Division of Naval Intelligence in Washington. The District Intelligence Officers are requested to afford expeditious handling to such cases consistent with the investigative case load prevailing at such time as the same are received.
